

Get Into Teaching Webinar

Bisley C of E Primary School have a long standing relationship with St Polycarp's Educational Partnership in supporting the training of outstanding teachers for the future. Many of our current staff have successfully trained through this route and have gone on to thrive in the profession. Is now your time for a new year and a new career?

Our offer

Thank you for your interest in training to teach with St Polycarp's Educational Partnership. You are now one step closer to starting a rewarding and fulfilling career in primary teaching.

We offer a 1 year school based training programme in conjunction with Reading University where you will learn on the job from expert practitioners whilst being supported by the university training course. We are proud to work with a wealth of experienced and well trained staff working across a range of inspiring schools who aim to make all trainee teachers feel valued and supported throughout their training year.

"You are guided through your training by excellent mentors, and surrounded by excellent teaching."

"The support and personalisation of the course is exactly what I needed."

"It's really inspiring to see how passionate the trainers are... they really champion their subjects."
